

An illustration of eight diverse children sitting on the grass under a large, leafy tree. They are all smiling and holding open books, appearing to be in the middle of a reading session. The children have various ethnicities and are dressed in casual clothing. The background shows a simple building and a clear sky. The entire image has a soft, blue-tinted overlay.

International Literacy Day

Stressing the Value of Education

Why Literacy Matters

Many adults, especially women, still cannot read or write .

Challenges in Daily Life

Cannot read letters, fill forms, or understand vital information.

Limited Opportunities

Lack of literacy holds back personal and national growth.

Education is the key to unlocking potential and progress for all.

Impact of Education

Empowerment

Unlocks new knowledge and better jobs

Health & Well-being

Improves health and decision-making

Community Impact

Supports families and communities

Educated citizens build a stronger, healthier, and more developed Bangladesh.

Barriers to Education

Poverty

Books, uniforms are too expensive.

Infrastructure Gaps

Lack of schools in rural and remote areas.

Gender Bias

Girls are not encouraged to study.

Child Labor

Children work instead of learning.

These issues prevent children from achieving their dreams.

Solutions

Let us work together to ensure every child and adult can read, write, and learn.

Free & Accessible Education

Encourage Girls' Education & Provide Materials

Build More Schools

Adult Literacy Programs

Together, we build a brighter future for Bangladesh.
